Session 1: Hobbes on Religious Toleration (41 pages) - July 9th

- “Of those things that Weaken or tend to the Dissolution of a Commonwealth,” pages 247-257.

Session 2: Locke on Religious Toleration (131 pages)- July 16th

Session 3: Religion and the State (40 pages) - July 23rd

- “Of the Religion of the Romans,” pages 34-36.
- “What Peoples the Romans Had to Combat, and That They Obstinately Defended Their Freedom,” pages 129-133.
- “That the Variation of Sects and Languages, Together with the Accident of Floods or Plague, Eliminates the Memories of Things,” pages 138-140.

Session 4: Doux Commerce (86 pages) - July 30th

- “Speech on Traitorous Correspondence Bill,” pages 575-586.

Session 5: American Civil Religion (73 pages) - August 6th

Session 6: Catholic Integralism (44 pages) - August 13th

